TRAINING/CERTIFICATIONS

Dart and flutter
I purchased an online Flutter course from a computer training institute located in Dharan Bazar, Nepal called Code-IT. The course covered a range of topics, including Dart programming, API integration, and user interface design. I completed the training on my own, working through the modules and assignments at my own pace. The course provided me with a strong foundation in Flutter development.

Machine Learning Developer
I recently received online training through MS Teams in Python programming language from instructor Sushant Pudasaini . Throughout the course, I gained hands-on experience working with popular ML libraries such as NumPy, Pandas, and Scikit-learn.

PROJECTS

hello-mayor

I had the opportunity to work on the "Hello-Mayor" Flutter mobile application as part of a project team.
My primary role was,

- To design the user interface API integration and fetching API data.

- Various changes to the application based on feedback.

NagarpalikaApp

I contributed to the development of a Flutter mobile application called "NagarpalikaApp". The app is an informative platform designed to provide users with a variety of useful information related to their local municipality. My role in the project was:

- Collaborate closely with other team members .

- Designing the user interface, integrating APIs, fetching data from APIs, implementing changes in the application, and managing version control.
